

Title: Wisconsin Development Authority Collection

Reference Code: Mss-2288

Inclusive Dates: 1938

Quantity: 000.03 cu. ft.

Location: Sm Mss

Abstract: A group of 12 prominent Wisconsin citizens incorporated the Wisconsin Development Authority in March 1937. The purposes of this non-profit, non-stock corporation involve, among other things, 1) Promoting or encouraging the organization of municipal power districts, electric cooperatives and non-profit corporations, and municipally owned electric plants, 2) surveying electric power resources and facilities and making studies for their economical development, use and conservation, 3) making surveys for the coordination of water supply, navigation, flood control, soil conservation, public health, recreational and other uses.

Scope and Content: The collection consists of the 1938 booklet Wisconsin Gets a Power Program: A Story of the WDA, and an appendix and the Financial Analysis of the Bradley Center Parking Program.

Access and Use: No restrictions

Language: English