Abstract: Dr. Frederick Olson was a local historian and Professor Emeritus of History, University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee. He taught history at Milwaukee State Teachers College and Wisconsin State College, Milwaukee, 1946-1956. A graduate of Milwaukee Public Schools, he attained B.A., A.M. and Ph. D. degrees in History at Harvard University.

His doctoral dissertation focused on Milwaukee Socialists, and he wrote and lectured extensively on state and local history. In addition, he served on numerous boards and committees relating to state and local history, including the Milwaukee County Historical Society (MCHS) and State Historical Society (SHS). He passed away in 2003.

Scope and Content: This collection includes Dr. Olson's research notes, correspondence, clippings, and articles used to prepare his dissertation which can be found in the unpublished manuscripts section of the library. Also included are Olson's notes and correspondence related to organizations he was involved with and topics he researched. Items which duplicated material in the MCHS or SHS archives were not retained (i.e. minutes, flyers and general correspondence).

Access and Use: No restrictions

Language: English

Notes: The collection was originally processed by Janet K. Geronime, October 27, 1992/June 8, 1993/March 8, 1994 and added to on various dates by Steve Daily and Kevin Abing.
