

Title: Raymond H. Niesen American Legion Marine Corps Auxiliary Collection

Reference Code: Mss-3411

Inclusive Dates: 1921-1962

Quantity: 0.4 cu. Ft.

Location: LM 132

Abstract: The Women's Auxiliary of the Raymond H. Niesen post #101 held their first regular meeting in 1921. The unit consisted of only women related to men who served in the United States Marine Corps. Similarly to other units of the American Legion Auxiliary, the unit focused on creating and supporting community for veterans and their families through charity work.

Scope and Content: The collection consists of compiled histories by multiple historians, both handwritten and typed meeting reports, financial reports documenting funds and payment distributions, and awards and citations granted to the Raymond H. Niesen Auxiliary unit.

Access and Use: No restrictions

Language: English

Arrangement:

Folder Heading	Box #	File #
History of Raymond H. Niesen Auxiliary, Vol 1; Gladys Miller, historian; 1921-, 1934-35, 1935-36	1	1
History of Raymond H. Niesen Auxiliary, Vol 2; Louise Pfannerstill, historian; 1936-37	1	2
History, Raymond H. Niesen, Unit No. 101; Beth Krause, historian; 1942-48	1	3
History, All Marine Auxiliary – Unit #101; O. J. Ogle, historian; 1948-49	1	4
History, All Marine Auxiliary – Unit #101; Harold P. Reichert, historian; 1957-58, 1958-59	1	5
Meeting Reports, 1948-1962	1	6
Financial Reports and Fund Details, 1949-1962	1	7
Awards and Citations, 1948-1959	1	8